The AfricanLead program is focused on boosting African prosperity through the embracement of the Next Production Revolution (NPR) sharing comprehensive understanding of innovation dynamics with the aim at educating next generation leaders towards new thinking over sustainable solutions.

The general objective of the project is to promote Africa embracement of the NPR while enforcing the EU-AU cooperation on the matter and achieving the mutual benefits and socio-economic innovation that may come when coping this approach with Sustainable Development Goals to promote an equitable and long-lasting prosperity in Africa.

Priority target countries are Tunisia, Niger, Nigeria, Kenya, Ethiopia and Mozambique.

The project is implemented by Politecnico di Milano and Politecnico di Torino and financed by the Italian Agency for Cooperation and Development (AICS).
